

Make-Up Test Student Guidelines

To ensure aquiet, secure testing area, the following guidelines must be followed:

Talk to your instructor. The esting Centedoes not create maker tests; your instructor does. If you have not madearrangements with your instructor before you come to the Testing Centhere will not be a make up tests will not be administered to a student who does not have photo identification.

Acceptable forms of ID are your curreDurham Techaudent ID, driver's license, passport, military ID, or employerID with photo.

Leave yourelectronic devices behind. The Text Center hasobkers for your use. You must keeall personal belongings in locker while youre taking a make-putest; remember to turn your cepthone off. If you need to leave an emergency number, use the Testing Center phone number 697235, ext. 240 ñ or campus security 19-536-7255, ext. 5500.

Snackbefore the test. We cannot abw food in the testing area. However, you may have a drink with a lid on it as you test. If you are sitting at a computer, you te oue audity, ecurity, ecurity, a security, .727 (h)]Th]TJ 0Tw (note that test; use the restroom before you begin the seam.

The nust give your exam to the proctor when you save, and your sest will be pointment pior to coming for your test. This blows us to monitor the students in the make-up testing area of distancing purposes, and allows us of sanitize accordingly! To make an apointment, email proctoring@durhamtech.edu.

Be on tme. The Testing Onter will not give tests beyond the deadline set by the instructor and will stop giving new tests one har before we close. At lests will be collected no later than thirty minutes before we close.

Follow the academic honesty policy. Any student found seeking assistance using materials no allowed by the instructor will be asked to leave the Testine of and reported to the instructor.

Follow the student code of conduct. The student code of conduct applies everywhere on campus, nicluding the Testing enter.

Understandyour instructor's policy. Not all instructorsallow make up tests. Make sure you understandyour instructor's policy. If you don't, check your syllabus or ask your instructor Testieng Center only proctors make up tests provided by an instructor.